SECTION C – Worker Statement

Use the space below to demonstrate your understanding of OHS principles, and how you apply this knowledge in your workplace.

Example: You might outline an OHS principle (for example, the right of a worker to be involved in health and safety decisions at work), and explain how you put this into practice; you could discuss potential hazards in your workplace, and what steps you take to prevent injury; you could outline an initiative you took in your workplace to enhance worker safety, etc.

SECTION D – Workplace Reference

Use the space below to outline how the young worker you are nominating demonstrates an understanding of OHS principles.

You might outline how the worker demonstrates knowledge, for example, of a worker’s right to ask questions and get all the information they need to work safely, and explain how the worker puts this into practice; you could discuss potential hazards in your workplace, and what steps the worker takes to prevent injury; you could outline how the worker consistently follows safe work procedures, wears required safety equipment, or encourages a co-worker to do the same, etc.
