

Hurt at Work?

Direct Access to Physiotherapy

Workers on Prince Edward Island now have direct access to approved Physiotherapists for assessment of work-related injuries. If you are hurt at work, get the immediate first aid you need, report your injury to your employer, then follow these steps:

- It is important to have your injury assessed as soon as possible, as early access to care has a significant positive impact on your recovery.

- If you are hurt at work, contact a physiotherapy clinic from the list provided, and request an assessment.
- An appointment will be provided within 48 hours of your request.

- Fill out a Form 6 (Worker's Report). You can obtain a copy from your employer or by visiting the WCB website at wcb.pe.ca.
- Send your completed Form 6 to the WCB by fax to (902) 368-5696, or drop it off at the WCB office at 14 Weymouth Street, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

- There are many positive health benefits to staying at work and returning to work as soon as possible following an injury.
- Modified duties are a safe and effective way to remain at work while recovering.
- Follow the return to work recommendations prescribed by the physiotherapist to ensure the best results and a safe recovery.

- Receiving treatment? Attend all of your scheduled appointments.
- Complete your home exercise program provided by your physiotherapist.
